(1) Belarus, Cambodia, China, Cuba, Indonesia, Iran, Israel, Kenya, Laos, Malaysia, OAPI, Oman, Syria, Thailand: In these countries recordals of existing licence registrations are mandatory.

(2) Brazil, Estonia, India, Namibia, Philippines: A subsequent designation to these countries is only possible if the registration date of the international trademark is after the entry of the respective country to the Madrid System.

(3) OAPI Members: Benin, Burkina Faso, Cameroon, Central African Republic, Chad, Comoros, Republic of Congo, Equatorial Guinea, Gabon, Guinea, Guinea Bissau, Ivory Coast, Mali, Mauritania, Niger, Senegal and Togo.

(4) BES-Islands: Bonaire, Saint Eustatius, Saba

(5) Afghanistan, Lesotho, Namibia, OAPI, Sierra Leone, Eswatini (Swaziland), Zambia: By experience, trademark rights are not enforceable in these countries by means of an International Registration and, therefore, national registrations are recommended instead.

(6) Member Country of the European Union

The fees for the above mentioned selectable countries are partly different. The fees for the countries not printed in bold are the same, whereas the fees for the countries printed in bold are individually different. We will gladly provide you with a detailed cost estimate.

Please do not hesitate to contact us for more information on trademark protection in these and other countries.
